LOCAL BREVITIES.

J. Einhorn, of Nashville, Tenn., has been in the city for the past few days prospecting. Mr. Einhorn made a flying trip to Pincastle yesterday.

J. R. Kerr, of Charlotte, N. C., who has been in the city several days visiting relatives, left yesterday morning for Winston.

P. W. Reynolds left yesterday over the Roanoke and Southern on a business trip to Martinsville and Danville.

L. D. Smith, of Floyd county, was in the city yesterday.

Henry Price, a well known Franklin county farmer, was in town yesterday.

A. L. Winfree, assistant postmaster at Elliston, was in town last night.

A. G. Galleher, of Louisville, Ky., and R. H. Berry, of Staunton, two popular drummers, are at the St. James Hotel.

J. L. Lester, of Christiansburg, was in the city yesterday.

Col. John D. Langhorne, of Lynchburg, was in the city yesterday.

W. H. B. Loving visited friends in Roanoke county yesterday.

F. E. Hudson, of Winston, is registered at the St. James.

Mrs. F. A. Loux is visiting friends at Troutville.

E. Hibarger, who has been visiting friends at Hagerstown, has returned home.

Hon. M. C. Thomas is at the Bromide Arsenic Springs in Montgomery county.

Miss Emma Coffman is visiting relatives and friends in Rockingham and Augusta counties.

S. W. Stickley, of the Roanoke Machine Works, is visiting his old home at Philomont, Loudoun county, and his friends say he will not return alone.

Harry Ward, a clerk in the office of the Roanoke Machine works, is visiting friends at Hagerstown.

Mrs. H. L. Fulwider, who for some time has been visiting her old home at Christiansburg, returned to Roanoke yesterday, accompanied by her sister, Miss Lena Davis, and by her friend, Mrs. Burwell Stanley, of Lafayette.

State Secretary H. O. Williams, of the Y. M. C. A., will return to Roanoke Friday and assist General Secretary Wynne in his work for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Thomas, of Nashville, Tenn., are in the city the guests of Hon. Henry S. Trout.

Miss Mary Pepper, of Elliston, was in the city yesterday.

J. H. Northcross and Rollin Deyler, of Elliston, spent yesterday in Roanoke.

The meeting of the Humane Society which was to have been held last night at the rooms of the Y. M. C. A., was postponed as a quorum was not present.

James Anderson, of Richmond, was in the city last night.

Justice W. S. Pole will hold police court while Judge Turner is absent in Richmond.

Mrs. B. O. Payne and daughter, Miss Elize, left last night for Richmond, where Miss Payne will have her eyes treated by a well-known oculist of that city.

The Bicycle Meet.

At a meeting of the Roanoke Wheel Club last night at the Y. M. C. A. rooms all the committees, having in charge the arrangements for the coming race meet on June 16 and 17, made favorable reports, and all that is necessary now for a first class meeting is good weather.

In addition to the local races the half mile state championship will be run on either the 16th or 17th, and it is needless to say that this will be a great treat to lovers of bicycle racing.

Besides the racing, William Wynne, champion fancy and trick rider of the South, will give an exhibition of trick riding on both days. On the evenings of Saturday, June 10, and Wednesday, June 14, the club will have a lantern parade.

D. K. Ammen, of Roanoke, has been appointed acting chief consul during the absence of Dr. Steele, of Richmond, who is in South America.

The War of Roses.

One of the most attractive festivals of the season was the war of roses which was given by the ladies of the First Baptist Church last night in the lecture room of the church.

The young ladies wore appropriate costumes and the tables were decorated in white and red and contained all kinds of delicious refreshments. The festival was liberally patronized and was largely attended considering the unfavorable weather. The entertainment will be continued to-night.

Had His Hand Amputated.

M. C. Mack, an employe of the boiler department of the Roanoke Machine Works, had the fourth finger of his right hand crushed yesterday morning while engaged at work on a boiler. Amputation was necessary, and the operation was successfully performed by Dr. Jos. A. Gale.

ARE YOU SUPERSTITIOUS?

Do you raise umbrellas in the house, walk under ladders, pick up pins, shake pennies at the moon, carry rakes through the house, put on the right shoe first, carry a rabbit foot (taken from the left hind leg in a graveyard) o o h, at midnight by moonlight? If you do, and of course you do one of them, though you may try to take it back unless some one is looking—come up and see us: We have a "charm" in our possession that is effectual against any "hoodoo" in the land—except when your corn hurts, then its sure to rain.
